MADAME FÙ'S STORY

Madame Fù was inspired by the story of a young girl from humble beginnings who went on a journey of exploration. She rejected the tradition of marriage at a young age to pursue her own path in Shanghai. Upon meeting a wealthy French admirer, her journey of discovery and passion for Grand Cafés began. These dazzling salons where artists, poets and authors entertained in style, elegance and charm became her social oasis; the stage upon which she thrived. This ignited her desire to bring to life her own Grand Salon.

Madame Fù is a beautiful contemporary Chinese restaurant located in the iconic Tai Kwun Heritage Compound. Spanning across the entire third floor of the old police headquarters, the restaurant offers a unique dining space in an artistic ambience. Pertaining to its late 19th century colonial identity, the space has been carefully crafted to maintain its deep sense of history. Evoking the bygone era and European Grand Cafés, each of the six unique and intricately designed dining rooms commands its own distinct identity.
